++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Largely dry today, with sunny spells and the odd shower.

Today:
A largely dry start, with any rural fog quickly lifting, and drizzle clearing on upland slopes. Patchy cloud developing later in the morning allowing for sunny spells, but bringing isolated showers through the day, with the odd heavy shower possible. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Tonight:
This evening, any remaining showers ease and clear into the night, leaving settled and dry conditions throughout. Little cloud allowing for plenty of clear spells. Possible fog in rural areas. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Wednesday:
Another dry start, as cloud and any fog lifts through the morning, giving plenty of sunshine through the day. The odd isolated shower remains possible. Some drizzle overnight. Maximum temperature 24 deg C (75 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Mostly dry on Thursday with sunny spells. Brighter skies still on Friday, dry throughout. Largely dry again on Saturday with further sunshine through the day. Feeling warmer than recently.
